

A Katrina donation

Tuesday, November 8, 2005 11:06 AM PST

Cindy DeBard, an owner of Harbor Shoes in Aberdeen, is shipping 46 pairs of work boots off to some of the workers helping rebuild in the region hit by Hurricane Katrina. DeBard was approached for the donation by Humptulips resident Jacob Shaddox, who's with the Washington State Conservation Corps in Mississippi now. Other agencies are so overwhelmed with providing essentials to victims, that they couldn't get work boots, so Shaddox decided to call home to get some help, DeBard said. The boots and some socks, which have a retail value of about $6,000, were mailed Monday. Jodesha Broadcasting, Grays Harbor Radio, Twin County Credit Union, Timberland Bank, Lanco and The Daily World helped pay for shipping costs.
